Skin Wellness Physicians Adds New Physician: Anne Marie Tremaine, MD

(Naples, Florida – January 5, 2016) - Skin Wellness Physicians is pleased to welcome Anne Marie Tremaine, MD, board-certified dermatologist, fellowship-trained in laser and cosmetic dermatology.

Dr. Tremaine graduated magna cum laude from The George Washington University in Washington, D.C. She then completed her Doctorate of Medicine at Upstate Medical University in Syracuse, New York, followed by clinical research and dermatology residency at the University of California in Irvine, California. This was then followed by an American Society for Dermatologic Surgery Cosmetic (ASDS) and Laser Surgery fellowship at Harvard Medical School, Massachusetts General Hospital in Boston, Massachusetts. Throughout her training, Dr. Tremaine held numerous leadership roles and received various honors and awards for academic excellence. Dr. Tremaine has authored over 20 published medical articles and book chapters within the dermatologic literature. She has contributed as a dermatology expert for online and print magazines including FamilyFun, msn.com, menshealth.com, and cnn.com. In addition, she frequently lectures to professional societies on her diverse research.

Dr. Tremaine joins Skin Wellness Physicians after a career as an assistant professor at Tufts Medical Center Dermatology Department in Boston, Massachusetts, and a dermatologist in private practice in Long Beach, California. Bringing distinctive experience to her new position, Dr. Tremaine offers services to adults and children for issues affecting the skin, hair, and nails, taking a special interest in skin cancer diagnosis and management, acne, rosacea, eczema, psoriasis, and birthmarks. She is an expert in cosmetic and laser procedures, including Botox, injectable fillers, spider veins; and laser treatments for scarring, brown spots, photo-rejuvenation, and broken blood vessels. She will care for patients in all three locations beginning February 1, 2016.
